Section 13-2 – Damage to municipal property; penalties.

No person shall injure, tamper with, remove, paint upon or deface any bridge, culvert, ditch and drain, sign, sign post, streetlight, traffic signal, bulletin board or other municipal property upon the streets and sidewalks or elsewhere except employees of the city in the performance of their duties.

Violation of this section may subject the offender to civil penalties that have been established to cover the cost of enforcement of this section in accordance with Section 1.15 of this Code. The civil penalty shall be as published in the fee scheduled adopted by the Board of Commissioners and modified from time to time. If appropriate, the offender shall also be responsible for the cost to repair or replace any damaged property that may be incurred as a result of a violation of this article, said cost being added to the civil penalty.
