Events:

Calendar for 2014: Ann Hollingsworth spoke to Seaway Printing and they were able to come down on the price some, from $1087.50 to $1050.00. Depending on the setup charges the price could change. There could be a change in the setup fees because they are going to be changing some of the pictures. The commission is still looking for pictures of fox squirrels and butterflies. The pictures are being submitted by several photographers from all over Boiling Spring Lakes. The commission has some sponsors.

Christmas Lighting Property Recognition Contest: There are three residents already onboard with participating in the lighting contest.

Information:

Ann Hollingsworth mentioned an article that she read. She said it stated that improvements add instant value to your home. Move things to the back yard. Cleaning and organizing on the outside is an inexpensive way to make your property look better.

Dosher Hospital: There is a new CEO at Dosher. His name is Tom Siemers. He has been a former CEO at hospitals in IA, AK and KY. He has twenty years of experience. The hospital has moved the date of their renovations to January.

Ann Hollingsworth explained that she is glad that our city does things for the community and has good community groups that continue to offer things to the community. Carmen Burke is glad to see the improvements since she has moved here.
