Mission Statement:

Commissioner David Putnam requested the members work on redefining the Community Appearance Commission's mission to reflect the activities it does. The activities have changed since the Commission was created. He asked members to bring suggestions to the next meeting.

Ann Hollingsworth explained the Commission gives out property recognition awards, certificates of appreciation and welcome packages. They display Blue Ribbon winners in a frame and bring the pictures to events. They make a calendar every two years. They critique city properties, which always get good ratings. A preferred number of members would be 5-7 people. Ann Hollingsworth explained the commission members should be good ambassadors to the city, always positive and not negative, not political in any way and have good things to say about the city. They should support the other committees of the city.

No public was in attendance.

Adjournment: The meeting adjourned at 7:43 p.m.
