IV. Public Comment

There were no public comments.

V. Old Business

- a. There is $603 in the budget.
- b. Ann suggested, and the committee members agreed, that day lilies and/or perennials be planted in the area of the two (2) welcome signs, which would beautify and draw attention to them. Perhaps we could obtain a grant for shade trees, as the city has for shade trees at Spring Lake.
- c. There was a question whether the light on the welcome sign between CIS and Danford Road, needs to be replaced. Zelma indicated that she will check with Duke Power.
- d. The committee members thanked Dale for arranging to have the welcome signs power washed.

VI. New Business

- a. Information packets will be tabled at this time.
- b. It was suggested that we determine how BSL residents learn of the Code Red information. (ie: realtor(s)).
- c. Property Recognition was awarded at 1890 Pinehurst.
- d. Photos were taken of the committee members, which will be depicted on their new lanyards.

VII. Announcements/Discussions

- a. Ann thanked the Special Events Committee for the banners and ribbons, in honor of the 2020 graduates from South Brunswick High School. She indicated that the parents were very pleased.

VIII. Adjournment

A Motion was made by Ann with a second by Dorothea to adjourn the meeting at 7:27 PM.

Vote: 7-0

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Pongonis
